1890. Some people agree with THE SUN,8 opinions about men and things, and some people don't; but everybody likes to get hold of the newspaper which is never dull and never afraid to speak its mind. Democrats know that for twenty years THE SUN has fought in the front line for THE SUN has fought in the front line for Democratic principles, never wavering or weakening in its loyality to the true interests of the party it serves with fearless intelligence and disinterested vigor. At times opinions have differed as to the best means of accomplishing the common purpose; it is not The Sux's fault if it has seen further into the millstone.

Eighteen handred and ninety is the year that will probably determine the result of the Presidential election of 1892, and perhaps the fortunes of the Democracy for the rest of the century. Victory in 1892 is the best time to start out in company with The Sux.
